Tenn. Code Ann. § 50-6-116(13) (2016). However, the Act does not provide for the admission of any other evidence in an appeal to the Commission. Given the absence of any contrary legislative direction as to the admission of medical evidence, we conclude that the Trial Court erred in admitting Dr. Rund's expert testimony. The manner in which the testimony was presented, and especially the decision to allow Dr. Rund to read into evidence the written copy of the medical bills from the Emergency Room, could be perceived as a concession by defense counsel that Dr. Rund's testimony would be admitted. Therefore, we find the error in admitting the testimony was prejudicial and warrant a new trial. We note that while the majority of Dr. Rund's testimony was admissible based on our analysis, his 6a5afdb4c

My review I like this app. I find this app very useful, to be honest. This app is also cheap. For only 99cents you get this app that does just what it's supposed to do. However, I found this app to be too basic for what I wanted it to do. It is a very basic app as you could say. I find this app very useful for the sake that you do not need to use the Internet to be able to chat. However, after I was done using the Internet, I would go back to Local Lan Messenger and show off all my friends for them to see how I text them. I did not like this as it was not fun or what the purpose of using this app was. I found this app to be too basic as it does not really have many cool features. That is what I think about this app. I find this app to be useful to me. I do not really like how this app is. I think that the developers that created this app should really do something to make this app better for me. Final thoughts I feel that this app should not be rated any lower than it is. The developers should do something to make this app better. 2bitsRating: You have rated this app 0 out of 5
