Solve.Q: Android Split Screen App using Window and Fragments I'm trying to create an app with Split Screen as user-interface. I have a View with three Fragments and a Fragment with only a View and no Fragment's. I want that the two Screen butted each other. What would you say is the best way to do this? A: You could check out Republican Sens. John Thune and Ron Johnson joined with Democrats in a 52-48 vote to pass a Department of Homeland Security authorization bill. The senate on Monday passed a Department of Homeland Security funding bill through the appropriations committee. The bill will now go to the Senate floor where it will likely face an uphill battle due to Republican opposition to its cost and Democrats' desire to include riders that would protect immigrants brought to the country illegally. Like previous Department of Homeland Security funding bills, the new bill continues to fund some agencies at 2012 levels but keeps other agencies at 2010 levels. The bill also allocates $1.1 billion for border security, although the annual amount is insufficient to construct the border wall that President Donald Trump has promised. The bill provides a 0.9 percent pay raise for DHS employees and grants $2 billion for local law enforcement agencies. It also provides $300 million for a variety of other initiatives, including $20 million to assist child victims of human trafficking and $5 million for border security equipment such as drones and mobile surveillance units. Many of the DHS agencies are partially funded, while the Border Patrol, Customs and Border Protection and Immigration and Customs Enforcement are funded entirely at 2010 levels. The budget bill also includes a large number of "riders" that continue to be a thorn in the side of conservatives 595f342e71
