Q: Bootstrap 4 Navbar display vertically over images I'm trying to do the same as in this question: Bootstrap 4 navbar display vertically over images My problem is that I want to give the menu an image background so this does not affect the menu, and I can't change the css for the image background to use "position: absolute" and the same for the navbar because it's over an image... Any ideas? A: Just use this css and give image as a background for the li tag. li { position: relative; z-index: 999; } .navbar-nav li { display: inline-block; z-index: 9999; color: #FFFFFF; text-transform: uppercase; font-weight: bold; font-size:

```
