A one-of-a-kind musical instrument. Just tap, shake or wave your phone and our app samples and transforms sound waves into something special. During early development we spent hours creating new and exciting instruments and collecting voice samples from singers all over the world. But no matter how much work we did, we weren't happy with the final results. We wanted a big, massive sound that sounded even better in smaller rooms with no separation between speaker and listener. We did more research and spent more time thinking. And we finally got it right. We made a pitch and got a record label and investors. We used a bunch of recordings from different instrument makers around the world to sample the biggest instruments and singers in their most natural environments. In the end, we actually managed to make "The Best" that way, but we still have a lot of stuff to check, so any feedback is welcome. A one-of-a-kind musical instrument. An injury-time strike from Cristiano Ronaldo at the Camp Nou was good enough to secure Juventus a 3-2 win that secured their position in second place in the Serie A. Juventus' victory means it now has a ten-point cushion on league leaders Napoli, with the Italian champions holding an unassailable 66 points. The UEFA Champions League holders have been on a run of form that has seen them win their last five league matches, taking four of those victories from a possible five. Their result also means they are now only two points off those standing between them and the knockout rounds. To say that PSG are reeling is an understatement and all three major European football bodies have now included that French champions in the running for Europe's richest club prize. The Parisians are now on ten points and only a draw against Monaco will see them qualify for the Champions League round of 16.
