Adoptable Dogs from Texas
Veterinary Referral Center
MARSHALL - Texas
Veterinary Referral Center
(TVRC) is accepting applications for the purposes of foster care and adoption of dogs from their shelter. The dogs are being used for training,
behavioral counseling,
enrichment, and education.
The dogs will be paired with

their own foster parents, in a home for dogs that will include daily exercise, training, and socialization. TVRC is a small nonprofit organization that has been providing shelter and veterinary care to homeless and abandoned dogs and cats since 1998. Every year, they open their doors to approximately 3,000 dogs and cats seeking emergency or temporary shelter. TVRC's long-term care facilities for these dogs and cats are veterinary care waiting areas, which they have been maintaining for more than 10 years. The long-term care facilities have separate exercise yards, exercise pens, and overnights. The long-term care facilities care for dogs and cats with physical and behavioral problems, some of which are often untreatable. If these animals are able to find a home after a while, they can be placed in a permanent home. TVRC's current waiting list is approximately 5,500 dogs and cats. In addition, they will hold approximately 800 dogs and cats to fill any potential euthanasia requests. In order to become a foster family and to provide care to a dog or cat, adoption fees have been waived for the current year. You can become a foster family on a trial basis for the entire year with the option of adopting your foster dog or cat at the end of that time. If you would like to become a foster family, please take a look at the online application. If you would like to volunteer your time to the rescue, we have volunteer opportunities available for drivers, water bowl trainers, enrichment trainers, dog walkers, and basic training.

She's pictured with her mother, Susan Harrington. Photo By Elizabeth Baumgardner Portland, OR Sara Harrington grew up hunting with a bow and arrow and never even touched a rifle until she was

13 years old. As an 8th grader, she learned the basics of shooting from her dad. After four years in the track, Sara went back to archery. The 31-year-old Newberg resident never missed a round as she moved through the ropes and onto the podium for the Women's National Championships. Her first place finish this year beat all nine other competitors in the country, and she picked up a championship title and a sleek new trophy. Her adventure began when she developed her love for horses and racing in Newberg while playing in the infield of Newberg's baseball fields. It was only a matter of time before the 12-year-old began attending local rodeos and seeing what all the hubbub was about. "I was invited by the guys I was playing baseball with to go to a rodeo. I went to a rodeo for the first time that day. I was hooked," Harrington told The Oregonian in a 2012 interview. Sara's introduction to horses was made even better when her parents loaned her their horse, Indiana, to ride and she decided to stick with it. She'd leave school to ride from 4-6 p.m. two or three times a week on the long trails near her Newberg home. She'd watch the local races on TV and learn all she could from her dad, who watched horses since the early 1950's. It wasn't long before she was spending every Sunday at the Portland Park racetrack or one of the local harness races. When she was 16, she decided she needed a new sport and signed up for her first archery competition. And that was it. "It was one of those things where I just decided

---

I'm going to do this," said Sara. "I didn't really consider it for that long. It just kind of took off." Now, as she approaches her 30th birthday, Sara has
